Weather Predictions.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—For the Upper Lake region, fair weather, north-westerly winds, slightly colder in the northern portions and nearly stationary temperature in the southern portions.

TOWN TALK.

J. Barth is going up higher—from 14 to 55 Monroe street.

W. Albert Scott is doing duty as a jurymen in the Circuit Court.

The skating was excellent last evening on some of the sidewalks.

If you haven't paid your taxes don't forget to remember that they must be paid this month.

The time for filing notices of trial for the March term of the Circuit Court expires tomorrow.

The Police Department was paid off yesterday and the officers now twirl their "muzzies" more joyfully.

The Detroit Free Press calls "The Wages of Sin" one of the best and most sensible melodramas ever imported.

A horse owned and driven by Otto Bylsma, a rag peddler, was yesterday condemned by the agent of the S. P. C. A. Society.

At the West Side Rink last night, Milley Luttonen, an eight year old boy, gave a very creditable exhibition on the rollers.

Charles Hamilton, of the Times, went to Coldwater yesterday. He was deputized to take three children to the State Public School.

The Detroit papers are very generous in their praise of "The Wages of Sin," which play is to be presented at Powers' Opera House to night and to-morrow night.

"Washington, or True Greatness" will be the subject of Rev. Mr. Flaherty's lecture next Sunday evening. The lecture on Wesley and Methodism will be referred one week.

Nelson Woods, who was arrested for stealing an overcoat, buffalo robe and other articles from the Bridge Street House, will board at the Ionia House of Correction until it is time to plant corn.

There is a demand for a roller rink in the northern part of the city, and Messrs. Fred. J. Brown and N. A. Cunningham expect to build one on Plainfield avenue. They were negotiating for a site yesterday.

The free singing-school for young men will be opened at the Y. M. C. A. rooms to-morrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. Prof. Shepard will be the instructor, and a general invitation to attend is given.

At a very pleasant euchre party given by Mr. and Mrs. Morris Seely last evening, Mrs. J. H. Burrows secured the best prize and Mrs. Tom Hager and Mrs. John Rowson were the lucky "booby couple."

The Central W. C. T. Union will hold its next monthly meeting on Friday evening, the 25th, at Mrs. C. D. Hodges, 172 Barclay street. The ladies of the Union will bring refreshments, and all are cordially invited.

Samuel E. Andrus, Aaron Norton, Henry W. McElroy, James S. Toland, Edward Farnham, Wm. H. Prescott and Charles E. Hagadone obtained their commissions as Notaries Public from the County Clerk's office yesterday.

A farmer who brought a load of wood to the city yesterday said that he had drawn it thirteen miles, and had "tipped over" three times. When he got here he was offered $1.50 for the load, and finally sold it for "thirteen shillings."

The thermometer rose at the average rate of 5° an hour from 8 a. m. until 1 p. m. yesterday—from 12° below to 16° above. A continued increase at that rate for twenty-four hours would have put a stop to complaints about cold weather.

There will be a special meeting of the W. C. T. Union of Unions at the Y. M. C. A. rooms to-morrow at 2 p. m. Each Union is requested to send two delegates. Important business is to be transacted. Members of the W. S. A. are invited to be present.

This evening at the residence of William Shackleton, 224 Turner street, the Ladies Aid Society of the Second Street M. E. Church will give a social. A very interesting entertainment will be provided, consisting of views on canvas, and music. All are invited.

At the Dairyman's Convention, to be held in this city next Wednesday, D. B. Squibbs, an extensive produce dealer at Muskegon, will present a paper on the advantages of putting butter in more attractive packages in order to induce the consumer to head off competition from bogus butter.

The assumpsit case in the Superior Court of the Grand Rapids National Bank against Robert Cutler as principal defendant, and the Old National Bank as garnishee defendant, came to a close yesterday, judgment being rendered for plaintiff against garnishee defendant for $354.14. An order and judgment upon disclosure and appointment of J. Frederic Bairs as receiver was made.

Violently Insane and Taken to Jail.

Henry Cargill, son of H. N. Cargill, of the Board of Health, is a cigar-maker and for some time past has been working at his trade in Muskegon. On Monday morning he went suddenly insane at the Arlington Hotel and attacked a traveling man with a knife, and it was with difficulty that he was overpowered and taken to jail. At the jail he seized a fork and attempted to stab the daughter of the Sheriff and afterward attacked the Sheriff with a stool. He was brought to this city and taken to his father's house, but grew worse and yesterday became so violent that his friends were obliged to call in the police to help manage him, and it was finally concluded to take him to jail where he could be handled with more safety. He was accordingly removed to the jail and his case will be investigated by physicians, if possible, to-day.

Oyster Supper and Social.

Grand Rapids Lodge, No. 36, of the Order of Chosen Friends, gave a social and oyster supper in Wilmot's Hall, corner of Leonard and Scribner streets, last night. I. V. Council, No. 17, also participated in the enjoyment of the occasion. In addition to the bounteous repast served by the ladies games of euchre and "Jacob-and-Ruth," or progressive blind man's buff, helped to make the hours glide by unnoticed.

Bound to See the Best.

Several members of the DeWitt Clinton Consistory, Scottish Rite Masons, of this city, will leave next Monday for Cincinnati to attend the Ohio Body, Consistory, in that city. They will witness the work of conferring degrees from the fourth to the thirty-ninth, inclusive, on Feb. 24, 25 and 26. The exact witnesses of some of the finest work ever performed.

THE DEAD COMES TO LIFE.

Letter from a Sister Mourned as Dead for Twenty-seven Years.

Conductor John May, who resides at 189 Jefferson avenue, was made one of the happiest of men yesterday morning, and his good wife and sisters share with him this happiness. In 1857 a sister of Mr. May's moved from the home neighborhood in Western Pennsylvania to Southern Iowa. This was the last time the daughter and sister was seen by members of the family. In 1882, when the contending armies were making raids through Northern Missouri, this sister, then Mrs. Harrison, started with her husband for California. The wagon-train across the plains, to which Mr. Harrison and wife and family effects were joined, was frequently harassed by the Indians and several of the moving company were killed. At Virginia City, Nevada, the larger part of the company stopped for safety, but Mr. Harrison with a few others pushed onward for the golden state. The last that Captain May ever heard from his sister was from Virginia City, and as reports came back of numerous slaughters of whites by the Indians between this city and California, and no further word returned, Mr. May, together with his family, mourned the sister as dead. In the mean time the May family left the Pennsylvania home and became scattered, Capt. May and two sisters moving to Michigan, and other members in various directions. Many and many times during the past twenty-seven years have Mr. and Mrs. May related the story of the sister's journey across the plains, and her death by the hands of savages. Yesterday morning a letter was received at 189 Jefferson avenue, from a Mrs. Eperley, of Scio, Oregon, and it was found to be from the long-lost sister, whose husband had died and who had remarried. The letter related the adventures on the way to California, told of the many fruitless attempts to get information to or from her friends, and stated that a daughter, a Mrs. Dr. Dodds, was living with her in Scio, and was the mother of two beautiful children. "Capt. May was so happy yesterday when he boarded his parlor car at the Union depot that the tears stood prominent in his large, bright eyes. 'I am going to take that letter up the road,' said the genial old man, 'where I have two sisters living,' and the tears came faster, he choked up in the throat and could hardly mutter 'take a chair car for Mackinaw?'"

THE WARD CAUCUSES.

The Greenback Party Still Flourishes in this City.

The National Greenback caucuses held at the engine houses in the different wards of the city last evening, for the purpose of electing three delegates from each ward to the county convention to be held Feb. 21, were not largely attended. In some of the caucuses there were just enough members of the party present to represent the delegation of the ward. The following is the result of the elections:

First Ward.—E. O. Stevens, chairman; James Hennessey, secretary. Delegates—John DeNeut, James Boyland, Andrew Price.

Second Ward.—Kryn Dykema, chairman; Freeman Brewer, secretary. Delegates—Kryn Dykema, John Goldsmith, Lyman T. Kinney.

Third Ward.—George Cook, chairman. Delegates—George Cook, Cornelius Fox, Jas. B. Gulliford.

Fourth Ward.—George W. Thompson, chairman; Henry P. McCormick, secretary. Delegates—George W. Thompson, Henry F. McCormick, Adrian Rens.

Fifth Ward.—Daniel Vergiver, chairman; A. L. Skinner, secretary. Delegates—J. Gibbons, T. B. Wilson, E. L. Randolph.

Sixth Ward.—The caucus was held in Johnson's Hall, corner of Leonard and Scribner streets. Wallace B. Watson was chosen chairman; James Moerman, secretary. Delegates: James Moerman, Wallace B. Watson, J. K. Watson.

Seventh Ward.—Geo. B. Reilly, chairman. Delegates: Geo. B. Reilly, Anthony C. Hydrun, G. L. Hughes.

Eighth Ward.—Delegates: Geo. Beiner, A. M. Bettes, A. C. Teple.

AMUSEMENTS.

The "Two Johns" Comedy Company at Redmond's.

The "Two Johns" does not demand or merit any extended compliment for its dramatic construction or movement. The lines are thrown together, many of them humorous, and sharpened with catching sarcasms and repartee. Scarcely a sentence has any salient reference to anything that preceded or followed its recital. However, the play does not claim or ask for attention to its dramatic arrangement. The life and soul of its existence hinges on the antics of the Two Johns. The gentlemen assuming these roles weigh together nearly six hundred pounds, and are a lively pair, droll in their manner, alive to the taking points in every line and incident. They proved to be comedians of considerable ability and no better test of this could be given than the fact that their auditors were kept in a continual roar, and were most liberal in manifesting their pleasure. The other members of the cast compare well with the average traveling company. With the two fat gentlemen in the lead, the play will be both popular and profitable.

"The Wages of Sin."

To-night the citizens of Grand Rapids have an opportunity to see some grand acting in the appearance of that superb actress Marie Prescott and an excellent company, at Powers in "The Wages of Sin."

A Polo Club Masquerade.

A masquerade is announced for Friday evening, the 27th inst., at the Division street rink, to be given under the auspices of the rink Polo clubs. Clubs No. 1 and No. 2 will play their first match game. The invitation committee comprises the following named gentlemen: Aston Turner, Jr., Frank Fisher, P. S. Hunt, Will Turner, C. H. McGurran, F. G. Spencer. The following are the reception committee: Sherman Wilson, Percy Storrs, Geo. Godfrey, Eddie Faw, Frank Walling, Eddie Smith, Leslie Vincent, Roy Griswold, Will Griffin, Will Wood, Eddie Moore, Charles Garney. The captains are P. S. Hunt and F. G. Spencer.

THE ROBBERY CASE CONTINUED.

The Prosecution Closed and the Defense Commenced.

The trial of Sligh, Jennings and Madden for the robbery of Mr. Smith, of Grandville, was continued in the Circuit Court yesterday, with the general interest of the public apparently increasing. The crowd in attendance was larger than on the first day, and at times not only the court-room but the sheriff's room and the halls, were filled with people who were unable to gain admittance.

It will be remembered that at the examination no evidence was offered on the part of the defense, and there has been considerable curiosity as to what line of defense would be adopted. The direct evidence for the people was completed yesterday, and Mr. Clary, for the respondents, outlined their defense, by stating that they expected to prove that at the time of commission of the crime, all of the accused were in this city, and that while Madden and Jennings were together on that night—Sunday, December 21—Sligh was not with them, and instead of driving them to Grandville with the horse hired from Mr. Lee, he spent the evening driving about the city with a lady, or ladies.

The first witness called by the defense was Ben June, a blacksmith, who swore that on the night of the robbery at midnight he saw Madden and Jennings in Burley & Roe's saloon on Waterloo street and took a drink with them. Alex. McPherson was at the saloon at the time, and on being called corroborated June's story.

Patrick Grant told of seeing Madden and Jennings at Bernard Berry's place, on Grandville avenue, from nine till eleven o'clock on the night in question, and Berry, on being sworn, supported Grant's evidence.

James Hadd, a mason, testified that he was driving about the city on the night in question and met Sligh in three different places between the hours of eight and eleven. That Sligh was in a cutter accompanied by a lady, and that at the corner of Lyon and Ionia streets they came near having a collision and Sligh threatened to whip him (Hadd.)

The witnesses were closely cross-examined by Prosecutor Turner, and some of them were made to appear unworthy of belief. Several of them admitted that they had been arrested for various offenses, and one of them (Hadd) said that he had been arrested and tried for bigamy, burglary and convicted of whipping his wife.

It appears that Mr. Clary is working especially for Sligh, while Mr. McBride looks after the interests of Madden and Jennings.

A Colony for Florida.

The following article concerning a large real estate transfer in which a well-known citizen of this place is interested, and which promises to interest several more, is taken from the Gainesville (Fla.) Advocate:

Hon. L. A. Barnes has just consummated one of the largest real estate transactions that has taken place in this vicinity for some time and one which will bring to our community a colony, we may say, of twenty Michigan citizens. He has sold his twenty-acre orange grove, near the Sink and 145 acres of his hemlock adjoining; also his present residence and one-acre of land, and a half interest in section fourteen, which is situated on the Mecanopy road. The purchaser is Mr. Samuel McPherson, of Grand Rapids, Michigan. Mr. McPherson proposes to bring some twenty or more families from Michigan, and we shall see that portion of our vicinity well settled and made to blossom as the rose. We congratulate Mr. Barnes on his trade and also Mr. McPherson on his location, and say to him and his friends, welcome, a hearty welcome.

BREAD UPON THE WATERS.

Exercises of the First Reformed Church Missionary Society.

A large audience filled the First Reformed church last evening to listen to the exercises of the Missionary Society of the church. This society is composed chiefly of the younger members of the church, has a membership of eighty-five, and its principal work is providing for the education of a young Hindoo lady in the seminary at Velore, India, that she may become a Christian teacher among her own people. The young lady now receiving the aid of the society is Miss Treadwell Maryane, an exceedingly bright and interesting scholar of thirteen summers. The exercises were interesting, and the program was as follows:

Singing of Hymn 742.
Prayer—Jas. Vanderstaals.
Reading of Scriptures.
Reading of Minutes.
Singing—An Anthem.
Address—"Their Religion"—H. Witters.
Reading of Letters.
Singing of Hymn 725—By Congregation.
Recitation—"Work on Tours in India"—Nellie Gault.
Address—"Success of the Missionaries"—L. Dyk.
Singing: an Anthem.
Address—"Their Mode of Life"—J. A. S. Verdie.
Remarks—Rev. P. Moordyk.
Singing: an Anthem.
Benediction.

During the exercises a letter was read from Miss Maryane telling of her progress in her studies and her hopes for the future. It was exceedingly interesting and proved, beyond a doubt, the society has a worthy and competent charge.

Capt. Gavett Caned.

The Ohio and Indiana Lumbermen concluded their visit to Muskegon last Saturday. On their way home, as their car was about to leave the Chicago & West Michigan road, they presented a resolution thanking the management of the road for the courteous treatment received, and as a further testimonial of their gratitude they handed Assistant General Freight and Passenger Agent Gavett a handsome gold-headed cane. The gift took the Captain entirely by surprise. In bestowing it the lumbermen conveyed a high compliment to the excellent management of this popular road and to the genial captain who so ably and efficiently looked after their comforts while in Michigan.

Musical.

For a few days only we will offer for sale at greatly reduced prices several styles of the celebrated Kimball Co. Organs that do not appear in our new catalogue soon to be published. These organs, remember, are new and beautiful instruments, but as we change our styles one or twice a year, we offer them in hand at wholesale prices and on small monthly payments. Behr.

A great many persons called at Paul W. Friedrich's, No. 24 Monroe street, last Saturday to see the elegant Behr piano with the "Harmonic scale," a new feature in the history of piano-making. The Behr Bros. & Co. now own five of the most valuable patent improvements in Uprights. Lately unscrupulous agents have advertised that their inferior pianos contain all the latest patents and improvements of any merit and value, but they never name any, nor can even show the name of the maker cast in the plate. Every Behr piano has the name and the patents granted cast in the iron plate, and people who want to convince themselves of the fact and the superiority of the "Behr" are invited to call at 24 Monroe street, and see for themselves.

FILKINS VERSUS FILKINS.

The Lady in the Case Wants a Divorce and Gives Her Reasons.

Pattie A. Filkins yesterday filed a bill in the Circuit Court asking for a divorce from her husband, John A. Filkins, alleging that he has treated her with extreme cruelty and otherwise abused and misused her. She says they were married at Lowell on or about Oct. 24, 1875, she at that time being a widow twenty-seven years old with two children, and he being three years her senior. They have lived at Lowell ever since, except one year, which was spent in Virginia. He began to abuse her soon after they were married, but she stood it as best she could until in March last, when she concluded to stand his abuse and ill-treatment no longer, and induced him to make a written agreement for a separation and they separated. They lived apart for a whole month and then he repented, acknowledged that he had done wrong and she, like a good woman, forgave him. He behaved himself very well for a short time and then began to treat her worse than ever. She now asks for an absolute divorce and a share of some property worth about $1,300, which, for some reason, has been bequeathed to some of John's relatives. There are no children to quarrel about.

Wood and Hay.

A large number of farmers with teams were in the city yesterday, and the Summit street market was well supplied with wood and hay. At 3 o'clock there were thirty-four loads of wood, twenty-six of hay, and five of straw on that street, and an hour later nearly all had been sold at fair prices. Some of the wood was from points fifteen and eighteen miles out, and looked as though it had been drawn through a snow-drift all the way. Hay sold for $10 and $12 per ton, and wood from $1.75 to $2 for dry sixteen-inch.
